

At the Supermarket

Mum: Ok! We haven't got much time and we need to buy a lot of things for your birthday party, Ben. Let's start!

Ben: All right, Mum! First, we need to make a birthday cake. Do we need much flour?

Mum: Yes, we need a lot of flour. We need two bags of flour. And we need a lot of butter, too. Take two packets.

Ben: Ok! Do we need any sugar or chocolate?

Mum: Of course. We need two packets of sugar and four bars of chocolate.

Ben: Right! Anything else? What about the food for the party? Are you going to make many sandwiches?

Mum: Well, I think you are going to need a lot! We don't need much cheese because there is a lot in the fridge but we need a lot of sliced bread and a lot of ham.

Ben: Ok! I'll take two packets of bread and half a kilo of ham. And what about something to drink? How much lemonade do you think we need?

Mum: Well, we can have three bottles of lemonade and two bottles of orange juice.

Ben: Great, here they are! Do you think we need anything else?

Mum: I don't think so... Are you and your friends going to be REALLY hungry?

Ben: Hmmmm...
